Casting Clinic Recap
The Banquet!

The Santa Lucia Fly Fishers fly fishing club was established in 1975 to give local area fly fishers of San Luis Obispo, Paso Robles, Santa Maria, and northern Santa Barbara, CA, of all skill levels participation in a club to learn, share, and experience the challenges of our sport in saltwater surf, and freshwater rivers and lakes.

President's Message

By Eric Tinglof

Summit view just east of Anchorage

There is a lot of growing excitement about our 50th Anniversary Annual Banquet just around the corner. Please log in to the website soon to purchase your banquet and raffle tickets online.

A special shout out to our Casting Team! Deb Cox, Sally Stoner, Todd Tose, Bob Hurd and Bernard Pieters conducted our two casting clinics earlier this year in February. Fifty-seven Club members participated on one or two of the days. Great instructors and a great tune up. I know my casting got better. Now, I just need to hit the water to practice what I learned. Remember, if you missed the casting clinics or want to go to that next level, these same Certified Casting Instructors are available for private lessons. Their contacts are at the end of this newsletter.

Speaking of hitting the water, we hope by April, our Club will be out on the lake at Santa Rita Ranch again. Besides wonderful central coast scenery, this lake offers good fishing, right in our backyard.

We are starting a new Classifieds Section in this month's newsletter. If you want to advertise an item(s) for sale, please send your description and maybe a photo to our newsletter editor, Mike Powers, mdpowersslo@icloud.com.

2025 Club member dues should have been paid before January 1st. If you haven't done so already, please do so today. Remember, if you don't pay your dues, you can't attend the Annual Banquet, and this will be your last newsletter.

Remembering Gary

By Eric Tinglof

I met Gary Brennan the first time that Glynis and I fished the San Juan with the Club. After finishing day one on the river, I saw him hanging around the horseshoe pit and we struck up a conversation, which came easily. I learned of his past as a cop and his desire to pursue our sport of flyfishing as much as possible.

On the fourth and final day of fishing, Glynis got to go solo with the head guide, TJ (lucky gal), and I got paired with Gary in a drift boat. We were accompanied by a new guide on TJ's team, who remarked when we left the shore that he brought the wrong net (too small) but didn't want to waste time going back to his truck. Besides, we probably wouldn't need his bigger net for the size of fish available to us. Gary also remarked that he was going to use a 4-weight rod that his relative had loaned him to see how it would do on these waters. I thought this would be fun until Gary was out fishing me five to zero in the Texas Hole. You want your partner to have success, but come on, I need some action too!

On the sixth run through the hole, guess what? Gary gets another strike right off the bat. But this one was different. I had never seen a rod bend like his rod did over the course of 30 minutes. Credit to the guide for handling what was becoming a very tense situation. The water was very muddy that year, so we never got a glimpse of his fish until the guide was able to somehow land it in his small net. When it was brought up, I didn't think it was real, based on the sizes of fish we had landed the previous three days. In the accompanying picture, you may think that also. But it was very real and a glorious specimen. What a thrash in the water when it was released and free to swim off. I can't tell you how much I rooted for Gary that morning. Our cheers were heard throughout the Texas hole and well down the river. Gary with his fish became an iconic image for our Club.

I made several other outings with Gary where we learned of his other passion since retirement: fiddle playing. It was always special to end the day in a campground, laughing and listening to ballads like "Whiskey for Breakfast".

I will miss the man. We all will.

Welcome New SLFF Members!
JuliAnna Fink
Cody Fink

Hi, My name is JuliAnna, and this is my son Cody. We have lived here in Pismo Beach for the last six years with my husband, Ray, and daughter/sister, Natalie. Cody is finishing his junior year in High School, while his sister is away in San Diego as a college freshman.

This past summer I had an exceptional outing on a women's retreat in Wyoming, in the Wind River. While the trip was mostly on horseback, I enjoyed the short introduction to fly fishing. Once back, I reached out to an Uncle of mine who was career fish and game, and lives for fishing. He took my son, Cody, his sister, and I camping in the Golden Trout Wilderness where we spent a few days learning a bit.

This is why Cody, and I are here now, joining your fishing group. We both really enjoyed everything that came with the fly fishing...hiking, meandering in nature, some quiet, some conversation...all of it. I think, as you'll see, Cody is the one who has a knack for it. He enjoys technical challenges and has a great deal of patience. I more enjoy being in nature and with him. We'd love to learn from you all, enjoy adventurous outings, and get to know some good people!

Casting Clinic Recap 2025

By Don Nott

Well, mother nature was very gracious and accommodating to us all who participated in this year's casting clinics. After all, isn't that one of many reasons we choose to live on the central coast? Perfect weather the first day and a bit of wind the second day which provided a real world situational environment for fly fishing. I've always been told as a fly fisher, "the wind is not your friend". Now, I'm not going to let that stop me.

We had 32 members participate in the first session and 26 members a week later in the second session. Unfortunately, several members had to cancel do to that nasty flu bug going around.

Under the leadership of Bernard Pieters and our club members who happen to be experts in instructional fly casting, Sally Stoner, Todd Tose, Deb Cox and Bob Hurd, taught us various types of casts. We were broken up into beginner, intermediate and advanced skills. The true value of having these clinics, is they are led by experts, in smalls groups which enables the instructor to provide you personalized attention. I don't know about you but I learned I need to slow down and utilize the power and flex of the rod (among another dozen things). Depending on your level, you were taught casts enabling you to cast straighter, further (single & double haul), and several casts that help you handle drag (reach cast, wiggle cast, etc.) which enable you to keep your fly longer at your target before your line gets dragged down river.

In closing, remember that all our casting instructors are available for individual hire and their contact info can be found on the club roster which can be found on our club's web site, <https://www.santaluciaflyfishers.com/>

I personally noticed some improvement in my casting year to year and I can't wait until next year's clinics!

Lance & Kirsten Gray

We have more than 50 years of combined experience in fly fishing.

Lance started fly fishing with his father and brother Lincoln at age 7. In his teens, he began tying flies commercially for shops around Northern California. At 17, he went to work at Powell's Fly Shop in Chico, where he worked in the fly shop and built rods. He guided Powell's, conducted fly-tying and fly-fishing schools, and traveled.

In 1993, Lance and Kirsten started Saltwater Innovations, a company that manufactured and distributed products for saltwater fly fishing. Lance's Crystal Popper, Gray's Billfish Fly, the KO Charlie line, and the Raghead Crabs are all Saltwater Innovations products. Kirsten worked behind the scenes, handling the day-to-day operations and running the company's manufacturing floor.

In 2003, they launched Lance Gray & Company, a full-service outfitter offering guided trips, fly-fishing tours, workshops, and a travel agency. Lance conducts presentations at fly clubs and fly-fishing shows. While volunteering with veterans, Kirsten and Lance support local groups like Cub Scouts and 4H.

He's a signature tier for Aqua Flies, a pro staff member for Sage, RIO, Simms, Fishpond, and Umpqua Feather Merchants, and a featured writer, with articles published in Angling Trade Magazine, California Fly Fisher, Fly Fishermen, and American Fly Fishing.

Lance is a columnist. His column "The Foraging Angler" is published bi-monthly in the California Fly Fisher Magazine.

Kirsten is a fantastic photographer. Her images have been published in many fly-fishing/outdoor periodicals, such as Fly Fishermen and California Fly Fisher, and on websites throughout the fly-fishing industry.

Fly-Fishing Northern California presented by Lance Gray

This presentation will cover the Feather River, Lake Almanor, and Manzanita Lake. I picked these venues for the club based on multiple factors: great fishing, easy access, a variety of fly-fishing tactics, and wild and hatchery fish.

The Feather River has two steelhead runs, one in the Fall and the other in the Spring. The river has multiple accesses for walking and wading and easy boat ramps for those who want to drift with their watercraft—a great place to hook into a wild or hatchery steelhead. You can fish nymphs and dry flies or swing the riffles with soft hackles or streamers. All tactics work.

Lake Almanor holds large rainbows and browns. The lake offers more than the famous “Hexagenia” Hatch in June. It also provides an excellent midge hatch, a pond smelt spawn, and a wide variety of food to grow the lake’s fish big. The lake also offers an excellent smallmouth bass fishery—great access to personal watercraft. My home away from home.

Manzanita Lake is a gem of a wild fishery. Browns and rainbows thrive in this mountain lake just inside the Lassen Volcanic National Park. Stripping leeches and damsels to dry flies work at this great lake. Terrestrial falls happen in the spring on this lake and can be fantastic, with wild fish eating recklessly.

I will cover the best tactics, rigging, flies, and the times of year to fish these great fisheries.
